SERIES HISTORY - vs. South Dakota State

The 2015 season marks the first ever meeting between WVU and SDSU. The two share a number of common opponents, as both have faced Virginia Tech and Oklahoma State this season. The Jackrabbits, who recently joined the Big 12, will take on Oklahoma on Sunday.

SERIES HISTORY - vs. Iowa State

Sunday is the 17th all-time meeting between the Mountaineers and the Cyclones. Though not the most prolific, it is one of the longest-running series in WVU program history as the teams first squared off in 1922. Iowa State holds a 15-1 lead, with West Virginia's last win coming in 2003.

LAST MEETING...

The Mountaineers hosted the Cyclones as part of Cradles for Cancer in Morgantown last February, falling to then No. 8 ranked ISU, 27-7. Zeke Moisey won a major decision at 125 over Kyle Larson, while A.J. Vizcarrondo topped Quean Smith, 5-4, at heavyweight.

THE NEW BIG 12

South Dakota State is one of six new affiliate members added to the Big 12 in the summer of 2015. In addition to the Jackrabbits, the league added North Dakota State, Wyoming, Northern Colorado, Air Force and Utah Valley. The six programs will join Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Iowa State and West Virginia at the 2016 Big 12 Wrestling Championship in Kansas City this March.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

After this weekend, the Mountaineers will have faced nine top-25 teams, as the Jackrabbits are No. 24 and the Cyclones rank at No. 16. WVU has faced five of the top 10 teams in the NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll (No. 3 N.C. State, No. 4 Oklahoma State, No. 7 Oklahoma, No. 8 Virginia Tech and No. 9 Michigan). West Virginia also took on then-No. 20 Oregon State at the Northeast Duals and most recently upset No. 17 Pitt.

MOUNTAINEERS TAKE BACKYARD BRAWL

For the second straight season, the Mountaineers upset a ranked Pitt team as they defeated the No. 17 Panthers, 18-12, by taking six of ten bouts. WVU topped then-No. 18 Pitt, 24-14, last season in Pittsburgh to earn its first win in the Backyard Brawl since 2007.

SCHEFFEL WITH THE UPSET

Unranked and bleeding profusely, Bubba Scheffel came through with one of the highlights in WVU's 24-9 loss to the Wolfpack last Sunday. After suffering an injury, Scheffel powered through to tie his bout with No. 15 Pete Renda on a late third-period takedown, forcing sudden victory. Scheffel picked up two in the extra period, taking the 7-5 victory.

FIVE IN NCAA COACHES' PANEL RANKINGS

Five Mountaineers are ranked in the top 33 of their respective weights in the second NCAA Coaches' Panel Index while seven total WVU wrestlers are in the top-33 in RPI, released by the NCAA on Thursday. Zeke Moisey ranks at No. 14 in the CPI and 13th in RPI at 125 pounds, while freshman Keegan Moore ranks 30th in RPI at 133. Dylan Cottrell is 16th at 157 pounds in the CPI and 17th in RPI. Freshman Connor Flynn is 31st at 165 pounds in the CPI after having his redshirt pulled in early December. Bubba Scheffel has moved up to 27th in the CPI and 14th in RPI after upsetting No. 15 Pete Renda of N.C. State 184 pounds last week. Jacob A. Smith rounds out the WVU crew in the CPI, ranking at No. 11 at 197. Smith ranks third in RPI. Tony DeAngelo also appears in the top-33 for RPI, ranking 21st at 141 pounds, while A.J. Vizcarrondo is 29th at heavyweight in the CPI. The rankings are used as part of the selection process to determine qualifiers for the 2016 NCAA National Championships in NYC.

COTTRELL MAKING MAJOR MOVES

In his first season with the Mountaineers, Dylan Cottrell has proved himself to be a leader on the mat for the squad. The Spencer, West Virginia, native owns a 21-5 overall mark this season, tied with Zeke Moisey for the team lead in wins. Most impressively, Cottrell has lost just one in a dual this season, dropping an 11-4 decision to Oklahoma State's seventh-ranked Joe Smith last weekend for an 8-1 mark in dual matches. He also leads the Mountaineers with eight major decisions this season, adding a pair of pins and a tech. fall for a team-best 11 bonus-point victories. Cottrell was a 2014 NCAA National Qualifier after winning the 149-pound title in the SoCon while at App. State. He transferred to West Virginia in January of 2015 and sat out the remainder of last season due to NCAA transfer rules.

FOUR PLACE AT SOUTHERN SCUFFLE

Four Mountaineers made it to the podium at the 2016 Defense Soap and Flips Wrestling Southern Scuffle on January 1 and 2. Zeke Moisey took third at 125 pounds while Jacob A. Smith finished fourth at 197. Tony DeAngelo defeated Penn State's Kade Moss to take seventh at the event at 141 pounds. Ross Renzi rounded out the WVU wrestlers on the podium with an eighth-place finish at 165 pounds. WVU took seventh at the event.

MOISEY NAMED WVU STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

For his third-place finish, Moisey earned WVU Varsity Sports Report Student-Athlete of the Week accolades. After suffering a first-round loss at the Scuffle, Moisey won seven straight matches - including six on the second day. He topped three ranked foes, including former Bethlehem Catholic teammate and training partner Darian Cruz, on his run.

BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP TICKETS ON SALE NOV. 23

Tickets for the 2016 Big 12 Wrestling Championship go on sale Monday, Nov. 23 at 10 a.m. CT. This season's championship, which will take place March 5-6 at Sprint Center in Kansas City, marks the first neutral-site conference championship for the sport. Fans can contact the WVU Ticket Office at 1-800-WVU-GAME to purchase tickets.

MOUNTAINEERS IN THE RANKINGS

West Virginia moved up to No. 24 in the most recent NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll, and ranks 23rd in InterMat's dual match rankings. A trio of Mountaineers continue to rank in the top-20 of their respective weights. Moisey ranks No. 12 (InterMat) and No. 13 (Flo Wrestling) at 125. Cottrell is at No. 13 (Intermat) and No. 12 (Flo Wrestling) at 157 pounds and Smith is ranked No. 7 for both InterMat and Flo Wrestling at 197 pounds. The Mountaineers have ranked as high as No. 21 as a team this season.

DEANGELO WINS THE UPSET

One of the highlights of West Virginia's 30-3 win over Lock Haven on Dec. 12 was Tony DeAngelo's win over All-American Dan Neff in a tiebreaker at 141 pounds. Both DeAngelo and Neff scored escapes in regulation to head to sudden victory tied 1-1. Neither wrestler earned a takedown, forcing the bout into a tiebreaker period. DeAngelo rode Neff in the first 30 seconds of the tiebreaker, then went to the defensive position for the second 30 seconds of the first tiebreaker period. He scored a reversal on Neff midway

FLYNN, MOORE EARN FIRST OFFICIAL WINS

Zachary Moore and Connor Flynn earned their first official collegiate wins on Dec. 12 against Lock Haven after having their redshirts pulled earlier in the month. Moore won a 13-4 major decision against Cody Wheeler at 149 pounds, while Flynn grabbed an 8-1 decision over Cody Cordes at 165 pounds.

COTTRELL LEADING THE WAY

No. 10/11 Dylan Cottrell continues to lead the way in his first year in Morgantown. The Spencer, West Virginia, native boasts a 17-2 mark entering the event and is 7-0 in duals. Cottrell also has a team-best 27 dual takedowns and has a team-high six major decisions. He is tied with Moisey for a team-leading eight bonus-point victories.

WV NATIVES LEAD MOUNTAINEERS AT CLIFF KEEN

A pair of West Virginia natives led WVU to a successful outing at the CKLV Invitational in Las Vegas last weekend. Spencer's Dylan Cottrell went 6-1 to take third place at 157 pounds, while Charleston native Jacob A. Smith went 4-2 to take fourth place at 197 pounds at the event. It was Smith's second year on the podium, as he took eighth in 2014. The Mountaineers finished tied for 16th overall - the second-best finish by a Big 12 team.

REDSHIRTS PULLED

As with Zeke Moisey in 2014-15, Henson pulled a trio of redshirts in time for last weekend's CKLV tournament. Keegan Moore (133), Zachary Moore (149) and Connor Flynn (165) all saw their first official action in a WVU singlet. Keegan Moore pulled off a major upset in his first collegiate match as he defeated No. 6-ranked Rossi Bruno of Michigan in a 12-9 decision.

SCHEFFEL TAKES TITLE

Bubba Scheffel is coming off a championship run at the Joe Parisi Open on Nov. 21. Scheffel went 3-0 at 184 pounds with a fall in the finals to take home the title. His run moves his season mark to 6-3.

WVU ADDS FOUR SIGHNEES

West Virginia University wrestling coach Sammie Henson announced Wednesday the addition of four student-athletes to the program. Conner Buttry (Osterburg, Pa./Chesnut Ridge HS), Dayton Garrett (Tuttle, Okla./Tuttle HS), Tucker Leavitt (Chubbs, Idaho/Highland) and Matthew Schmitt (Platte City, Mo./Platte County) have signed National Letters of Intent to join the Mountaineers for the 2016-17 season. "We are excited to continue with another great recruiting class," said Henson, who is in his second year at the helm of the Mountaineers. "We believe that we have a great group of men in this year to continue our tradition of recruiting some of the nation's wrestlers. Our geographical reach, amongst our two most recent signing classes, proves that wrestlers all over the country want to be a Mountaineer."

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Please note that the Mountaineers boast two wrestlers named Jake Smith on the roster. The first is a junior certified at 149 pounds and will go by Jake S. Smith. The second is a junior who wrestles at 197 pounds and will go by Jacob A. Smith. Please be mindful of this when selecting wrestlers for scoring in Track Wrestling.

SMITH NAMED BIG 12 WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

2015-16 WEST VIRGINIA WRESTLING

Junior Jacob A. Smith went 3-0 to lead the Mountaineers to a sweep of the Mountaineer Quad, earning Big 12 Wrestler of the Week accolades on Nov. 10. Smith, ranked No. 8 in the nation, led the Mountaineers to a sweep of the Mountaineer Quad to open the season on Sunday in Morgantown. The Charleston, W.Va., native used a trio of takedowns in scoring a 10-4 decision over Drexel's Joshua Murphy as WVU topped the Dragons, 26-7. Smith then scored an early takedown and four back points to take a 6-0 lead over Campbell's Austin McNeil. He went on to register another takedown as he took a 13-1 major decision to help West Virginia defeat the Camels, 26-14. However, his most exciting match of the day was against rival Arizona State's Josh Dasilveira. Smith quickly got to his feet after a takedown and sent Dasilveira to the mat, scoring the reversal before claiming the win by fall with just over 20 seconds to go. The pin gave West Virginia the 22-14 victory over the Sun Devils. It marks the second career Big 12 Wrestler of the Week.

FOUR MOUNTAINEERS GO 3-0 AT MOUNTAINEER QUAD

Four Mountaineers went undefeated to open the season with wins over Drexel, Campbell and Arizona State on Sunday. No. 3/4 Zeke Moisey (125) and No. 16/18 Dylan Cottrell (157) each went 3-0 on the day, with Moisey recording a major decision and Cottrell adding a major and a tech. fall. Parker VonEgidy (174) registered a trio of major decisions, while No. 9 Jacob A. Smith (197) had a pair of bonus-point victories, including a pin that led WVU to the win over the Sun Devils.

MOISEY CAPS SEASON AS NCAA RUNNER-UP

Starting the season as a redshirt freshman, Zeke Moisey was thrust into the lineup in mid-November and would cap the year as an NCAA finalist at 125 pounds. Moisey, who placed third at the Michigan State Open while wrestling unattached, finished eighth at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational and topped a number of ranked opponents throughout the year.

MOISEY IN THE HISTORY BOOKS

His trip to the NCAA finals made Moisey the program's 30th all-time All-American. He became the first Mountaineer to earn the accolade since Brandon Rader did so in 2007. Moisey was the first WVU wrestler to wrestle in the NCAA finals since Greg Jones won a national championship in 2005 and was the first unseeded wrestler to make it to the finals since 2003.

HENSON, MOISEY HONORED

Both head coach Sammie Henson and Zeke Moisey earned Amateur Wrestling News accolades in their inaugural season with the Mountaineers. Henson, who led WVU to a 9-9 record and a top-25 NCAA finish, was named the 2015 Amateur Wrestling News Rookie Coach of the Year. Moisey's NCAA run earned him mention on the publication's All-Rookie Team.

BIG 12 ADDS AFFILIATE MEMBERS

The Big 12 Conference has added six affiliate members to its post-season wrestling competition as Air Force, Northern Colorado, North Dakota State, South Dakota State, Utah Valley and Wyoming will join Iowa State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and West Virginia in future Big 12 Wrestling Championships. The affiliate member additions are effective beginning with the 2015-16 academic year. Affiliate members will compete for the Conference's postseason championship and the league's automatic qualification to NCAA postseason competition.

In his second year at the helm of the Mountaineers, head coach Sammie Henson looks to build upon an exciting finish from the 2015 season that produced West Virginia's first All-American in eight years and renewed the Mountaineers' presence on the national scene. In addition to several transfers, some of whom start the season nationally ranked, Henson has brought one of the top recruiting classes in the nation. West Virginia will start the season ranked No. 21/23 in the nation in various polls, but will look to finish a challenging slate even stronger.

Zeke Moisey headlines this group, returning from a stellar true freshman season that ended with a Cinderella run through the NCAA tournament. Moisey, who went 32-14 last season, upset four ranked opponents at the 2015 NCAA Championships to become WVU's first All-American since 2007 and the first unranked wrestler to qualify for the NCAA finals since 2003. Sophomore Ryan Elliot saw limited tournament action last season and is joined in the room by freshmen Devin Brown and Jonathan Ragsdale. Brown ranked in the top 10 of his high school weight of 113 and was a top-100 recruit, while Ragsdale is a three-time Georgia state champion and U.S.A Weightlifting National Champion.

"We look to build on the success of last year's NCAA tournament and bring the same mindset, intensity and passion that Zeke Moisey is known for into the 2015-2016 season," says coach Sammie Henson.

Starter Cory Stainbrook returns for his junior season after going 14-19 as a sophomore. Stainbrook was a 2014 NCAA qualifier at 125 pounds and will be joined on the mat by redshirt freshman Joe Wheeling, who has bumped up from 125 and will look to crack the lineup this year. FloNationals Champion Keegan Moore and Virginia state champion J.D. Gregory join the veteran duo in this weight class.

"Corey continues to train with the consistency that makes him a wrestler to watch in 2015-2016," says Henson. "We look for him to be a contender for All-American status this year."

With starter Michael Morales wrapping up his career at last year's NCAA championships, the Mountaineers will look for someone to step into this role. Transfer Tony DeAngelo, who came from Missouri with Henson, sat out last season with an injury but will look to push for the starting spot. Christian Monserrat, who redshirted as a freshman but saw tournament action, will push DeAngelo for the starting spot. Louis Colonna saw action in six matches last year at 149 pounds, but will classify at 141 as a sophomore. Idaho state champion Ryan Klemp and fellow freshman Caleb Mariakis will provide depth at this weight as they push the upperclassmen for the starting spot.

"This weight class is very competitive with Missouri transfer Tony DeAngelo and red-shirt freshmen Christian Monserrat," says Henson. "Tony earns his sport as starter leading into the Mountaineer Quad through an inter squad wrestle off. With these two battling, they will elevate each other to the NCAA elite."

A slew of wrestlers filled this spot last season and, as with 141, the Mountaineers will be looking for a full-time starting candidate as they enter the 2015-16 season. James Dekrone started three tournaments and seven duals before suffering an injury, but returns for his senior season. He was joined in the room last year by Jake S. Smith, who was forced to sit out after transferring from Appalachian State. Smith won the Wolfpack Open as a freshman for Appalachian State and wrestled unattached in a trio of tournaments last season. Highly touted newcomer Patrick Duggan, who was ranked in the top 10 at his high school weight of 145 pounds, could also be in the mix. Returners Williams Jenkins and Ty Millward saw action at tournaments last season and will provide depth, as well as Oklahoma City product Zachary Moore and local product Ryan Lopez who joins the team as a freshman out of University High in Morgantown.

"Jake S. Smith, who transferred from Appalachian State, will earn the spot after intersquad wrestleoffs against James DeKrone," says Henson. "Jake's unusual style of wrestling will be hard to beat, as he is tenacious with his mat skills."

Following the departure of starter Brutus Scheffel, transfer Dylan Cottrell will look to step into the lineup at 157. Cottrell was ranked 10th in the nation as a redshirt freshman for App. State in 2014, earning an NCAA bid as the SoCon Champion at 149 pounds. He sat out last season after transferring to WVU in January, and has bumped up to 157 pounds and will enter the season ranked No. 15 via InterMat, No. 17 by FloWrestling and No. 18 by TheOpenMat.com.

"Dylan Cottrell, another transfer from Appalachian State, will be a force to be reckoned with," says Henson. "We expect All-American status in his first year wearing the Old Gold and Blue."

Ross Renzi returns for his senior campaign after going 12-14 on the season with a fall and a major decision. Wheeling could also provide depth at this weight. Tim Wheeling is another veteran with experience at both 157 and 165, and Zach Heeter has wrestled in tournaments for the Mountaineers. A pair of newcomers in FloNationals Champion Connor Flynn and Palmer Begley will also compete.

"Ross Renzi looks to end his career at the NCAA Championships," says Henson. "He has the ability to go with anyone in the country but it will depend on his ability to stay healthy and be consistent with this training. He will be challenged by fellow senior teammate Tim Wheeling, who also looks to end his career at the NCAAs."

Parker VonEgidy transferred to West Virginia from Missouri in December and immediately took over the starting spot. He's joined by freshmen Dustin Gray, Landon Mumford and Kyle Rogers, all three of whom will look to push him on the mat.

"Parker VonEgidy has responded well to training this fall and has worked with the passion he needs to excel this year," says Henson. "It will come down to his ability to maintain his weight and deal with adversity. If he can do these things, the rest of the country should watch out."

NCAA qualifier Bubba Scheffel will look to make his third NCAA tournament – his second at 184 pounds. Scheffel took third at last year's Big 12 Championships and earned an at-large bid following a challenging schedule that featured competition against most of the top wrestlers in his weight all season long. Leonardo Trindade and Bailey Faust provide depth at this weight.

"Bubba had some good wins last year and we look to see him lay it on the line and have fun this year," says Henson. "Bubba needs to believe in his training, enjoy the experience and success we will look for him to have in 2015-16."

NCAA qualifier Jacob A. Smith returns for his junior year ranked as high as tenth in the national polls at 197 pounds. Smith was the 2015 Big 12 runner-up, and went on to a 2-2 mark at the NCAA Championships. Bryson Begley got valuable practice experience last season and will look to push Smith at practice.

"Jake Smith had an incredible year but we need and expect him to be an All American in 2015-16," says Henson. "He has to finish the tournaments and believe he belongs with the nation's elite."

HWT

Two-time Big 12 runner-up A.J. Vizcarrondo returns for his senior season. Vizcarrondo returns with a chip on his shoulder after being slighted for selection into the 2015 NCAA Championships despite pinning nationally ranked Ross Larson of Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship. Austin Myers could challenge Vizcarrondo as he comes to WVU off a high school career in which he was ranked in the top-5 of his weight class and won a title at FloNationals. Senior Chris Nelson is also a valuable presence in the room.

"A.J. is coming off the best summer he has ever had and with new upcoming freshmen Austin Myers, his wrestling has went to a new level," says Henson. "We look for big things to come from AJ this year."

SAMMIE HENSON

Head Coach | Second Season
Missouri, 1995

@SammieHenson

- World Champion
- Olympic Silver Medalist
- World Bronze Medalist
- 2x NCAA Champion
- 71-0 at Clemson
- Head Coach - Sunkist

Sammie Henson was named the eighth head coach in WVU program history in May of 2014, and is quickly bringing the program to new heights.

Henson brought with him a 17-year streak of All-Americans, having coached a total of 20 with five NCAA national champions. In Morgantown, he was challenged with the task of extending that streak in a program that hadn't had a wrestler finish in the top eight since 2007. He succeeded.

Pulling freshman Zeke Moisey's redshirt two weeks into the season proved to be one of the most crucial decisions of Henson's career. Entering the 2015 NCAA National Championships unseeded, Moisey put together an historic run, upsetting the No. 15, No. 2 and No. 7 seeds to become WVU's first All-American since Brandon Rader in 2007. He then went on to pin No. 6 Thomas Gilman of Iowa in 52 seconds in the semifinals to become the first unseeded wrestler to advance to the finals since 2003. Moisey dropped a 9-5 decision to No. 4 Nathan Tomasello of Ohio State to cap his season as the NCAA runner-up.

However, the turnaround of the WVU wrestling program started long before the NCAA Championships. The Sammie Henson era opened in Morgantown on November 13, when the Mountaineers hosted former WVU assistant and the Arizona State Sun Devils at the WVU Coliseum. Though the Sun Devils took the match, 19-13, the match in front of 1,200 fans rejuvenated interest in the program. The team went on to place a trio of wrestlers on the podium at the Cliff Keen Invitational, with the 16th-place finish marking WVU's best showing since 2007. In dual action, the Mountaineers topped No. 25 Bucknell in early January, briefly entering the NCAA top-25 that month, before ending the regular season with a win at No. 18 Pitt. It was the first time since 2007 WVU had taken the annual Backyard Brawl. In between, the Mountaineers sought revenge on ASU, twice taking victories from the Sun Devils.

West Virginia put together its best-ever showing at the Big 12 Championship in March, accruing a team-high 35 points with four finalists. A.J. Vizcarrondo became the program's first ever two-time Big 12 finalist and was the runner-up at heavyweight for the second straight year. He was joined on the podium by Moisey (runner-up 125), Roman Perryman (runner-up at 149), Jake A. Smith (runner-up at 197) and Bubba Scheffel (third at 184).

Along with senior Michael Morales (149), Smith, Moisey and Scheffel earned at-large bids to nationals. The four combined to post eight wins, marking WVU's best finish in 10 years. The Mountaineers finished in 20th place with 23.5 points, their first top-25 finish since 2005, helping Henson earn Amatuer Wrestling News Rookie Coach of the Year accolades.

In addition to his work with the Mountaineers, Henson started the Mountaineer Regional Training Center, drawing a number of national and international-level wrestlers to Morgantown to train. In the summer of 2014, he guided assistant coach Nick Marable to a spot on the U.S. World Team, and continues to coach Marable, former Olympian Clarissa Chun and national team member Jessica Medina through the MRTC.

A native of St. Charles, Mo., Henson came to WVU from Missouri, where he spent two seasons as head assistant coach. In just two seasons at Missouri, he assisted in producing the No. 2-ranked recruiting class in the nation in 2013 in addition to leading the Tigers to two consecutive conference titles and seven All-America finishes, including one national champion this past season.

Prior to Missouri, Henson was the assistant head coach at Oklahoma from 2009-11. While there, he helped secure the No. 2 recruiting class in the country, coached seven wrestlers to All-America status at the NCAA Championships and helped the program become the top academic squad in the Big 12 during his tenure. Before Henson arrived at Oklahoma, the Sooners hadn't had an All-American in two years.

Prior to his stint with Oklahoma, Henson served as the head assistant at Cal Poly (2007-09), volunteer assistant at Nebraska (2006-07), along with stops as an assistant at Army (2002-03) and Penn State (2000-02).

During his time at Penn State, Henson assisted head coach Troy Sunderland in taking the Nittany Lions from 35th in the country to sixth with a pair of top-five recruiting classes in just two years. He has mentored numerous national champions, such as Michael Lightner (Oklahoma), Byron Tucker (Oklahoma), Paul Donahoe (Nebraska) and J'den Cox (Missouri), along with several All-Americans, Big 12 Champions, Big 10 Champions and Pac 12 Champions, including: Shane and Dane Valdez (Oklahoma), Witt Durden (Oklahoma) and Josh and Scott Moore (Penn State), Chad Mendes (Cal Poly), Chase Pami (Cal Poly), Boris Novachkov (Cal Poly), Jarrod Patterson (Oklahoma), Zach Bailey (Oklahoma), Kyle Terry (Oklahoma), Tyler Caldwell (Oklahoma) and Eric Lapotsky (Oklahoma).

Henson has been widely recognized as one of the elite assistant coaches in the country. Tim Foley of Intermat rated him as the best in the nation in an article from 2010, stating that "Henson's intensity is legendary and seemingly always transferred to his grapplers. There is nothing coincidental about his arrival in Norman and the Sooners impressive 2009-2010 turnaround."

Along with collegiate coaching, Henson is also the current head coach for the Sunkist Kids Wrestling Club, which has more current world and Olympic wrestlers than any other wrestling club in the United States. Out of the seven freestyle wrestlers who represented Team USA at the 2012 Olympic Games in London, three came from the Sunkist Kids. Included in that group is Olympic gold medalist Jordan Burroughs at 74 kg/163 lbs. Also representing the United States in the Olympics in 2012 were Sam Hazewenkil (55 kg/121.3 lbs. and Tervel Dlagnev (120 kg/264.6 lbs.).

Henson's resume as a competitor speaks for itself. He went on to become one of the most celebrated wrestlers in the history of the United States, as one of just a few wrestlers in USA history to earn three world medals. In 1998, Henson became a world champion for Team USA at the World Wrestling Championships, in Tehran, Iran, which eventually led to him winning the John Smith Award for USA Wrestler of the Year. He earned a silver medal at the 2000 Olympic Games at 55 kg (121 lbs.) in Sydney, Australia, and won the bronze medal at the 2006 World Wrestling Championships at 35 years of age.

Additionally, Henson was named USOC Athlete of the Month of September 1998, and was a finalist for the Sullivan Award in 1999 for his efforts in the World Championships. In all, Henson has won more than 15 freestyle titles at the international level.

Henson started his collegiate wrestling career at Missouri, where he was a Big Eight Champion and All-American for Missouri in 1991. He then transferred to Clemson, where he became a two-time NCAA Champion, finishing his career with a 71-0 record. He was named as Clemson's Male Athlete of the Year in 1994 and was inducted into the Clemson Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. Henson returned to Missouri in 1995 to earn a degree in parks, recreation and tourism management.

Henson and his wife, Stephanie, have four children: Jackson, Wyatt, Ruby and Georgia-Kate. They also have two dogs Biggie Smalls and Nelly.
